HARTWELL PRIMARY SCHOOL PROFILE

Hartwell Primary School was established in Camberwell in 1922 and is proud of the exceptional educational program provided for children in the local community over the past eighty-seven years. The school enrolment which has been growing in recent years, with young families moving into the area, is currently 708.

At Hartwell Primary School the students enjoy facilities which are not replicated in many primary schools. The original two storey red brick building has currently been modernised and includes administration and four state of the art learning communities (the equivalent of twenty classrooms). Each of the learning communities are housed in flexible learning spaces, incorporating outdoor learning areas, separate staff work spaces, student toilets, wet area, air conditioning, interactive white boards etc. There is also a Performing Arts Centre / Gymnasium, Canteen, Out of School Hours Program facilities and Music Room. We have developed specialist areas such as the art room, music room, library and a designated science area.

The well - developed grounds have benefited from long term planning and have asphalt areas for netball, basketball, volleyball, bat tennis and rounders. There is a synthi-turf oval, soccer / hockey field, a paved courtyard, quiet areas and a continuing emphasis on the provision of shade. Play equipment is provided for both junior and senior students. The school community prides itself on maintaining and improving these facilities through cooperative effort.

Hartwell Primary School is a school with a strong commitment to encouraging all students to strive for excellence in a supportive environment, which recognises individual differences and different rates and styles of learning. The school has an outstanding reputation for providing core skills in Literacy and Mathematics, as well as a broad education including emphasis on the Arts and Physical Education. In the recent years the school has achieved above the expected mean in all strands of English and Mathematics. The extensive curriculum provided is based on the Victorian Curriculum and is complemented by specialist staff in Art / Craft, Music / Performing Arts, Physical Education, Library, Italian, Mandarin/ Science and Reading Recovery.

Our school strategic plan clearly identifies The school is in the process of devising a new teaching model highlighting the school vision and values and clearly defining Life Long learners and key characteristics of our teaching program will include a willingness to work in a team environment and an understanding of inquiry learning.

Students are encouraged to participate in literary, artistic, sporting, swimming and problem solving events beyond the school and have had a high success rate in these. We have had recent successes in Tournament of Minds (Australasian Pacific winners), Swimming and Cross Country together with participation by the Drum Band, Choir and in community events.

The school's Student Wellbeing is based on the Philosophy of Restorative Practices, The Resilience Project and explicit teaching of social skill. There are student leadership opportunities for all students in Grade 6.

An Out of School Hours Program, offering Before School Care, After School Care and Vacation Care is well supported.

Parents play a key role in the school, working closely with classroom and specialist teachers to support their children's learning both within the school and at home. A class representative scheme facilitates communication and parent involvement within classrooms. Parents are also involved in the more formal structures of School Council, its sub committees and the School Community. The school benefits from the experience and skills of parents and links with the local community. Communication with the community includes a weekly newsletter, regular Principal-Parent morning teas, class notices, information evenings, parent teacher interviews and Parent Education Programs.

At Hartwell we expect our children to learn and grow in self-confidence as a result of:

- Becoming independent and self-motivated learners
- Achieving a solid grounding in Literacy, Numeracy and Learning Technologies
- Acquiring decision making, problem solving and critical thinking skills
- Learning the value of working as part of a team
- Showing tolerance and respect for others

A major goal will be to continue the focus of collaborative teaching and learning in a flexible environment to meet the needs of a changing world. At Hartwell we aim to design and implement a contemporary curriculum that reflects the Hartwell vision, beliefs and pedagogical practice in literacy, numeracy and inquiry and is supported by innovative ICT practices. Our mission is to maximise student achievement through using the three pedagogical pillars of individualisation, differentiation and personalisation. We ensure that we provide a safe and secure environment (buildings, grounds and the open spaces) that are available for the children.

We recognise that:

- The majority of students come from social, economic and educationally advantaged backgrounds. In the main, the student body is articulate and capable academically.
- The school demographic is changing to become more multi culturally diverse. Currently 10% of students at Hartwell speak a language other than English.
- The school provides for student wellbeing through Restorative Practices, a social skills framework and participation in The Resilience Project.

3 Rights and responsibilities

3.1 Guiding principles

Every member of the school community has a right to fully participate in an educational environment that is safe, supportive and inclusive. Everyone deserves to be treated with respect and dignity.

3.2 Equal Opportunity

The Equal Opportunity Act 2011

<http://www.education.vic.gov.au/hrweb/Documents/Equal-Opportunity-Discrimination-and-Harassment.pdf>

The Equal Opportunity Act sets out the types or grounds of discrimination that are unlawful and aims to promote community recognition and acceptance of the equality of men and women, and the equality of people of all races, regardless of their religious or political convictions, their impairments or their age.

3.3 The Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities Act 2006

The Charter sets out a list of 20 rights that reflect the following four basic principles:

- Freedom
- Respect
- Equality
- Dignity

The charter outlines a vision of human rights for all Victorians. The charter affirms that all people are born free and equal in dignity and rights. While the charter demands equality for all, it also emphasises the value of difference. The charter requires public authorities, including government schools and their employees, to act compatibly with human rights and to consider human rights when making decisions and delivering services.

- The right not to be discriminated against
- The right to privacy and reputation
- The right to freedom of thought, conscience, religion and belief
- Cultural Rights

It is important to understand that with human rights comes a responsibility to respect other human rights.

All DET employees must act compatibly with the Charter and give proper consideration to human rights when making decisions. Everyone should:

- Encourage compliance with the Charter
- Support others to act compatibly with the Charter, and
- Respect and promote human rights

Part of the monitoring of Human Rights will be to complete the Charter Compliance Checklist on the School Compliance web site.

3.4 Students with disabilities

<https://www.education.gov.au/disability-standards-education-2005>

The Disability Standards for Education 2005, clarify and make more explicit the obligations on schools and the rights of students under the Disability Discrimination Act 1992. The standards cover enrolment, participation, curriculum development, student support services, and harassment and victimisation.

An education provider must make 'reasonable adjustments' to accommodate a student with disability. An adjustment is a measure or action taken to assist a student with disability to participate in education and training on the same basis as other students. An adjustment is reasonable if it does this while taking into account the student's learning needs and balancing the interests of all parties affected, including those of the student with the disability, the education provider, staff and other students.

In determining whether an adjustment is reasonable, an education provider should take into account information about:

- the nature of the student's disability
- his or her preferred adjustment
- any adjustments that have been provided previously
- any recommended or alternative adjustments.

This information might come from the student, an associate of the student, independent experts, or a combination of these people.

An education provider should ensure that the student, or an associate of the student, has timely information about the processes for determining whether the proposed adjustment would cause unjustifiable hardship to the provider. The provider should also ensure that these processes maintain the dignity, respect, privacy and confidentiality of the student and the associates of the student, consistent with the rights of the rest of the community.

The provider may consider all likely costs and benefits, both direct and indirect, for the provider, the student and any associates of the student, and any other persons in the learning or wider community, including:

- costs associated with additional staffing, providing special resources or modifying the curriculum
- costs resulting from the student's participation in the learning environment, including any adverse impact on learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers
- benefits of the student's participation in the learning environment, including positive learning and social outcomes for the student, other students and teachers, and
- any financial incentives, such as subsidies or grants, available to the provider if the student participates.

The DDA and the Education Standards do not require changes to be made if this would impose unjustifiable hardship to a person or organisation.

3.5 Bullying and harassment

The school aims to provide a safe and secure environment to establish the best learning conditions and promote personal growth, resilience and positive self-esteem for our students, staff and community. We have a 'No Bullying Policy' which is reviewed annually and published within our community.

Definitions

Bullying is repeated oppression, physical or psychological, of a less powerful person by a more powerful person or group.

Harassment is any verbal, physical or sexual conduct (including gestures) which is uninvited, unwelcome or offensive to a person.

Cyberbullying is a form of bullying which is carried out through an internet service such as email, chat room, discussion group, online social networking, instant messaging or web pages. It can also include bullying through mobile phone technologies such as SMS. It may involve text or images (photos, drawings)

Examples of cyberbullying behaviour are:

- teasing and being made fun of
- spreading of rumours online
- sending unwanted messages or images
- defamation.

Cyberbullying can happen to anyone and the bully can act anonymously if they wish. People can also be bullied online by groups of people such as class groups or collective members of an online community.

It is important for the school to provide a safe and friendly environment for students and staff and to encourage care, courtesy and respect for others. All persons have a legal right to protection from harassment under the Commonwealth Sex Discrimination Act and the Victorian Equal Opportunity Act.

Please refer to the school's 'No Bullying Policy' for more information on the school's stance with regard to bullying.

STUDENT MANAGEMENT

More Severe Discipline Procedures – suspension and expulsion

When considering suspension or expulsion, schools are required to follow the procedures listed in section 4.3 of the DET guidelines published in Effective Schools are Engaging Schools Student Engagement Policy Guidelines. Appendices 12 to 18 of the guidelines provide flowcharts and proformas for use in suspension and expulsion procedures.
